MANCHESTER WOMAN SENTENCED FOR CONSPIRACY TO DISTRIBUTE COCAINE

CONCORD, NEW HAMPSHIRE – United States Attorney Tom Colantuono, the Drug Enforcement Agency Resident Agent in Charge Leo Ducey, N.H. Attorney General Peter Heed, N.H. State Police Colonel Gary Sloper and Manchester Police Chief John Jaskolka announced that Billie Lynn Brosmer, age 33, of Manchester, New Hampshire was sentenced today in U.S. District Court in connection with her role in a conspiracy to distribute cocaine in Manchester, New Hampshire in June, 2002.

Brosmer was sentenced to a term of 77 months in prison and placed on three years probation during a hearing before U. S. District Judge Joseph A. DiClerico, Jr.

U.S. Attorney Tom Colantuono stated, "The prosecution of this case and others like it represents the continuing efforts of local and state and federal law enforcement, working jointly with the United States Attorney's Office, to eradicate cocaine from the streets of New Hampshire."

The successful prosecution of this case resulted from the collaborative efforts of the New Hampshire Attorney General's Drug Task Force, the Manchester Police Department, the Drug Enforcement Administration and the New Hampshire State Police. This case was prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Robert J. Veiga.
